

Hi there (First Name),

My names Ridge Mantua, I'm a Filipino/Australian producer and rapper (and occasional publicist when needed...) based in Sydney.

In 2018 I started releasing music under the name riddo. and built a following of over +35,000 unique monthly listeners and +500 000 total streams on Spotify as a future bass/trap artist.

In 2019 I've set my sights on writing and introducing rapping over my own production. My January 19th release Limitless, which you can stream here <https://bit.ly/2S0oGeE> is my rapping debut as I set out to put Filipino Hip Hop on the map in Australia.

I'd love the opportunity to share the story behind Limitless and the accompanying music video with you to introduce Filipino hip hop culture to your audience and a wider Australian music scene.

I feel I could share with your audience on any of the following topics:

- How I built my following in 2018 and why I've chosen to move in a new direction in 2019.
- The experience of a Filipino rapper trying to break into the Australian scene while staying true to his cultural identity.
- My plans for 2019, which include an Album and upcoming gigs at Sydney's

If any of these sound like they'd be a good fit with you (First Name) I'd be happy to jump on a call and discuss it further with you.

Either way I really appreciate you taking the time to read this!

All the best

Ridge

P.S. Here's a link to my Electronic Press Kit where you can find out more about me, the Limitless press release and any other details you might need :)